Friday night dinner on your own.

Saturday 5:30 pm BYOB social and Pizza Dinner (cash box TBD, but usually $10-$15 per person) will be at Sally Martins Home, 2104 Fairway Lane, Marshall, TX.

Directions to Sally Martin Home: From Marshall go north (toward Jefferson) on Hwy 59. Turn right on Hwy 43, cross loop 390 and just before golf course turn left or (north) on Fairway Lane. Home will be on the right. Her home is also a gallery of some wonderful paintings by Jo Taylor, Don Andrews, Edgar Whitney, and other famous artist. Sally's home is wall to wall paintings. Her home and gallery alone are worth the trip to our Paint Out.

There are some wonderful places in both Marshall and Jefferson to paint.

Marshall Visitor center: <http://www.east-texas.com/marshall-texas.htm>

Downtown Courthouse and lots of interesting Buildings on North Bolivar Street near Art Center. Also the old Rail Road Depot in located at 800 North Washington Street. Just to the east and visible is the old abandoned Snyder Mill. A multi-story Grain elevator with all kinds of interesting views and plenty of vacant lot areas to set up and paint. Just south of the old Snyder Mill is the Old Marshall Graveyard with some very interesting subjects.

Jefferson Visitor center: <https://www.visitjeffersontexas.com/>

A great place to find old store fronts, backs of old buildings, Jefferson Historical Museum, the river with r/r crossing – A must visit is Auntie Skinner's Riverboat Club and restaurant. Great interior subject for photo and paint later. Just go downtown and take a look see. Public restrooms behind City Offices and Police Station located 102 N Polk Street. Jefferson Railway and Gator Feeding 400 E Austin Street Sat 12:30, 2:30 there is a fee of $12.00.

Also we have invited East Texas Watercolor Society to join us on the Paint Out. They have some really outstanding artist and beginners as well.

A signup sheet will be at the September meeting or contact Ron Bigony, paint out chair
